Mob Storms Jail To Get Moore's Slayer

Turner Spirited Away to Jail at Leesburg Yesterday Afternoon

NOW IN RICHMOND PEN

Jail Door Opened to Mob Who Leave Without Trouble—Turner to be Tried by Federal Authorities.

A mob of more than 200 persons bent on lynching William H. Turner, colored, self confessed slayer of T. Morgan Moore of this city, and who also attacked Moore's fiancee, Miss Pearl Clark, secretary to Representative Britten of Illinois, last night at midnight went to the Alexandria county jail in search for Turner who had been spirited away from the jail at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and who is now in the custody of the United States authorities.

Members of the mob after searching the jail thoroughly on two different occasions left the scene of the place without any disorder and most of them returned in automobiles, going by way of Acqueduct Bridge.

Jailor Kines stated this morning to a reporter for the Gazette that he expected that a mob would visit the jail The first news he had of its arrival was at 11.30 o'clock last night when there was a rapping on his door. He lives in a dwelling directly adjoining the jail. He told the men that the prisoner had been taken away in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. This statement, however, failed to satisfy the men and they demanded they be permitted to go into the jail and see for themselves. Jailor Kines at once complied with their request and threw open the jail doors and admitted the men.

On this trip about twenty-five men entered the jail and made a close inspection of the eight prisoners confined therein, which included one white and one colored woman and six men, white and colored.

The members of the mob remained in the jail probably about twenty minutes and left feeling satisfied that their man had been taken away, as there was one man in the party who would be able to recognize Turner it is stated.

Without any demonstration the men left the jail quietly, and the only untoward incident that occurred according to Jailor Kines was the cutting of the telephone wire of the jail. One member of the party afterward repaired the broken wire.

A second crowd of men about 12.15 o'clock this morning or about half an hour after the first crowd left the jail made an attack on the jail Jailor Kines says that some of them attempted to force the door. He again opened wide the jail doors and admitted between fifty and one hundred and they too looked over the prisoners confined therein and left the place, apparently dissatisfied at not finding Turner.

In the opinion of Jailer Kines a majority of those in the party were curiosity seekers, came and parked their machines some distance from the jail, simply waiting to see what the real leaders of the mob were going to do. Jailor Kines says that they parked their machines some distance away from the jail and hence he was unable to obtain a fair estimate of the crowd. He, however, is of the opinion that the second bunch of men who came to the jail to "get" the slayer were in the first crowd that arrived on the scene, but were simply unable to gain admittance when the jail was first opened by him and simply wanted to be satisfied that they were not being duped about the prisoner being taken away.

The party bent on avenging the killing of Moore and the attempted assault on Miss Clark began forming in this city before 10 o'clock. They met at various points and motor vehicles and trucks were used in taking them to the county jail. Several from Washington also came over to Alexandria and joined the party it is reported, and it stated that a number from Alexandria county also were in the group. The members of the mob went at different times and by different routes and one group of men it is stated started to make the trip to the jail on foot, but later were picked up by automobiles enroute to the jail.

A number of members of the party when they arrived at the jail donned masks. The majority, however, made no effort to conceal their identity.

Turner was taken away at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the jail in an automobile in charge of Sheriff A. C. Clements, Deputy Sheriff Geo. Marcey and Special Officer Howard Smoot. The destination of the prisoner was not made public, although Commonwealth's Attorney Frank L. Ball stated that his ultimate destination was Richmond.

While the mob was storming the Alexandria county jail last night Turner was sleeping soundly in the little jail in Leesburg, Va., he having arrived there at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon in custody of the Alexandria county officials. There were few residents of Leesburg who were aware of the fact that Turner was a prisoner in that jail. In fact the Leesburg officials did not think it necessary to take any precautions owing to the secrecy which had surrounded the removal of Turner.

Turner now is in the Richmond penitentiary far from mob vengeance where he undoubtedly will be kept until he is tried before Judge Edmund Waddill of the United States Court for the Eastern district of Virginia.

Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning Turner was placed in a high powered automobile and taken over the road presumably to Richmond, although the Leesburg officials stated to a representative of the Gazette over the long distance phone today that they were pledged to secrecy as to his destination.

The prisoner was in charge of Sheriff T. W. Edwards, Loudoun county; Mayor Lowenbach and a deputy and was heavily manacled. He appeared unconcerned over his removal.

The order for the removal of Turner from the jail on Fort Myer Heights yesterday afternoon was given by Judge Samuel G. Brent of the circuit court for Alexandria county. This action was taken by Judge Brent following a conference over the long distance telephone with Governor Westmoreland Davis, it being deemed expedient to have him removed for fear of mob violence.

There were few persons aware of the fact that the prisoner had been taken from the county jail, so secret were the movements of the officials. He was placed in an automobile in charge of the foregoing men and

It was later discovered she had escaped from an asylum in the north and a reward of five hundred dollars has been offered for her return to this institution.

The residents of Del Ray and St. Elmo were awakened at an early hour this morning by shots and loud shouting from the gathering of enraged citizens who expressed their determination to wreak vengeance on the negro who shot and killed T. Morgan Moore.

VILLA PLAYING NEW ROLE OF AVENGER

Assassination of Carranza Leads to Reaction of Armed Forces

PRESIDENT ELECTED

Adolfo de la Huerta Named Executive Ad Interim by Extraordinary Session of Mexican Congress.

Washington, May 25.—Official interest in the Mexican situation was intensified yesterday by reports of a widespread reaction resulting from the killing of Venustiano Carranza, the deposed President.

These indications were accompanied by information that the de facto Government might have to face almost immediately not only the problem of reducing Villa, the long-time rebel leader, to submission but also more important armed opposition.

Reports reached Washington from the Mexican Capital that men prominent in political affairs were suspected of preparing to take advantage of the indignation caused by Carranza's death, to lead an avenging movement as did Carranza when Madero was assassinated in 1913.

Mexico City, May 25.—Adolfo de la Huerta, governor of Sonora, was named president ad interim of Mexico by extraordinary session of congress yesterday evening. He received 224 votes against 28—for Pablo Gonzales.

Gen. Antonio Villareal was the only other candidate. After one hour and a half of balloting Gov. de la Huerta received the necessary two thirds majority.

The new incumbent holds office under the "Auga Prieta plan" and has already postponed presidential elections from July 4 to September 5 under authority of the "Auga Prieta plan," which makes him supreme chief of the liberal constitutional army. He exercised the same authority in calling the extraordinary session of congress.

Preston, secretary of the chamber and member of the executive committee, will at that time voice the views of this community.

LAUDS VETERANS WHO WORE GRAY

Rev. Dr. E. V. Regester Orator at Memorial Exercises

PRAISE FOR WOMEN

Exercises Under Auspices of U. D. C., Flowers—Salute and Taps at Close Flowers Salute and Taps End Exer-

A glowing tribute to the men who fought so valiantly for the Confederacy and a warm tribute to the noble women of the South and for the part they played during the 4 years' conflict was paid by Rev. Dr. E. V. Regster, pastor of the M. E. Church South in an address before the Confederate Veterans and their friends in the Young Peoples' Building yesterday afternoon.

It was the annual memorial exercises of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, held this time under the auspices of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. A large number of persons were present including the veterans, Sons of Veterans and others.

The exercises were presided over by John R. Zimmerman, commander of the local post and who made a few remarks and then prayer was given by Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffey, pastor chaplain of the local camp, who now lives at Rockville, Md.

Afterward Nevell S. Greenaway played "America" and then the address was given.

The assemblage next moved to Christ Church yard where a large crowd had assembled and the mound in that cemetery beneath which rests remains of a number of Confederate dead was strewn with flowers. Afterward a salute was fired by a squad from Fort Myer after which taps were sounded which brought the exercises to a close.

As heretofore stated the graves of the Confederates in the cemeteries were decorated and also the monument at Washington and Prince streets.

THROWN FROM TRAIN

President of France is Badly Bruised in His Plunge

Paris, May 25.—Paul Deschanel, president of France, was badly bruised but otherwise uninjured, early yesterday when he fell from a moving train near Fontainbleu. The president was en route to Montbrison when the accident occurred. According to his explanation of the accident, the president was taken with a severe attack of grippe during the trip. As a consequence when he retired he closed all doors and windows in his sleeping compartment to prevent catching additional cold.

Shortly after midnight, he said, he found the air too close in the compartment, and arising, endeavored to open a window in the car. The window stuck, but he managed to open it just as the train lurched badly. He lost his balance and was hurled out of the window. Fortunately, the train was moving slowly at the time, and the roadway at the point was sand ballasted. These facts prevented more serious injuries to the president, who was able to get up and make his way to the nearest railroad station, where his facial wounds were dressed. He immediately telephoned his wife, who had not learned of the accident, assuring her that his injuries were not serious.

FARE BOOST MOVE DROPPED BY W.V.R.

Announcement Made at Meeting of Commuters Association

STANSBURY RRESIDES

Railway Company Drops Case For Increase of $2.75 to $4.00 on Twenty Five Trip Ticket.

The Washington-Virginia Railway Company has withdrawn its petition filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission asking permission to increase the price of the twenty-five trip or family tickets from $2.75 to $4. Announcement to the foregoing effect was made last night at a meeting of the executive committee of the Mount Vernon Commuters' Association held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce, by D. R. Stansbury, president of the association, who received a letter from the commerce commission to that effect.

The hearing on the increased fare rate was to have been held tomorrow in Washington before the Interstate Commerce Commission. The committee will, however, continue and be willing at any time to take up matters pretaining to the welfare of the patrons of the road it was announced.

The twenty-five trip ticket known as the family ticket is one of the most popular tickets sold by the trolley company and only recently the Interstate Commerce Commission granted the railway company permission to increase the price of this ticket from $2.50 to $2.75.

The Commuters' Association prevented the order for the increase going into effect some time ago by presenting a petition of protest which resulted in an order from the commission delaying the putting into operation of the boost in fare and setting a date for a public hearing on the subject.

THE LAW'S DELAYS

Naturally all good citizens are clamoring for justice in the case of the negro who is charged with attempted highway robbery, assault upon a young white woman and the murder of her escort last Saturday night. But that a mob should arrogate to themselves the positions of public executioners is questionable. Lex non scripta, while recognized by many good people, is a dangerous instrument in the hands of an excited multitude. That the negro who committed the acts charged against him should be given an immediate trial and the full penalty of the law imposed is the earnest wish of all law-abiding citizens. The culprit will be arraigned, it is said, in the United States District Court in this city at the July session, five weeks hence. In the meantime let all possess their souls in patience.

As is stated elsewhere in the Gazette, a multitude of exasperated persons gathered last night at the jail of Arlington county and demanded that the fiend be turned over to them. After having satisfied themselves that the object of their search was not in the jail, the assemblage scattered. Those constituting this crowd were not of the "hurrah" species, but determined and calm men, anxious to take the negro into their own hands. They realized the law's delays, and were anxious to save the state the expense of feeding the murderer and the necessary expenditures of legal proceedings.

Much can be said in extenuation of their purpose. The body of a young and popular Alexandrian, victim of the desperado, was at that time lying stark and stiff in death with the members of his stricken household and other relatives sobbing around his casket. Many friends and acquaintances were calling and extending their heartfelt sympathies to the many stricken ones, including the father and mother of the victim. The little daughter, barely old enough to realize what it all meant to her, stood by dazed by the solemn conditions surrounding her.

As we have suggested above, the law's delays are blamed by many for the exasperation manifested last night by justly indignant citizens. There is a general clamor for justice, but in the meantime it is best to do all things decently and in order.

There were two lynchings in Alexandria in a space of two years (1897 and 1899). It was subsequently shown that mistakes had been made in both cases, especially in the last. We recall an incident in connection with the second overt act. The late Rev. Father Richard L. Carne, to whom no place on earth had been more dear to him than Alexandria, where he had been born and reared and in which he had always taken so much interest, was pastor of a church in Richmond at the time. A few days later he visited his old home when he met the writer. He referred to the second thrilling scene which was still fresh in the minds of all, and said substantially: "I have been an Alexandrian, ex animo, but after the fearful acts of the past two years I turn sorrowfully from the city of my birth. I have no desire to return to it."

KAISER WILHELM RELICS

If the former Kaiser of Germany was expecting to reap large sums from the sale of furniture and other relics from his palace in Berlin, he has been disappointed. After paying all costs, it is not likely that Doorn will be much embellished by American cash. If there is much sentiment in this country for the deposed ruler it is not being manifested in a practical manner and doubtless the "prisoner" will be much disgusted at the result.

Those who are familiar with the development of German decorative art under the aegis of Wilhelm II are aware that none of the objects had intrinsic value. He was given to the gaudy and the cheap. It will be remembered that the Gold Cup he gave to this country turned out to contain only $20 worth of the precious metal; that when the ugly statues that lined Unter den Linden were melted down in the war they were found to have only the thinnest coating of bronze. Under Wilhelm art developed only as it met his own low ideals and according to the artist was thoroughly "loyal." Third rate art was ennobled as far as his approval went. The best artists never basked under imperial favor. To this day the beautiful things of Versailles and the Fontainbleau fetch high prices aside from historic associations, but neither Potsdam nor the Berlin palace can compete in this respect.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

SAFETY FIRST ALWAYS!

Whether Walking or Driving

Cooperate With Others. They Have an Equal Right With You. Respect that Right as you Expect Them to Respect Yours

Owners and Operators of Automobiles

Respect the rights of others. Remember that pedertrians have as much right as you. Always exercise care in passing crossings and street cars.

Users of the Sidewalks

REMEMBER

Pedestrians should give equal rights to others.

Stop, Look and Think "Safety" before you cross a congested street, or pass behind a street car, autobile or wagon. Always see what is on the other side of theobject that you are passing.

Cross Streets always on the crosswalks. Go slow, look for an opening in the passing wagons and autos, then go quickly.

Don't start to go across the road until you know that it is safe, then keep going. Don't turn back.

Never rush across the road ahead of a car, auto or wagon. Take time, for perhaps an auto or wagon may be coming on the other side.

Look out for speeders and joy-riders. The fact that they may be violating the law will not make an injury any easier to bear.

Look both ways when crossing street. 'Tis the only safe way.

Being Sure Means Safety

Users of the Roadways

REMEMBER

Operators of trucks and motor cars should use great care in driving. especially so in congested districts and in the vicinity of schools.

Don't crowd pedestrians into a place of danger, with your motor car, truck or other vehicle.

Driving in street car tracks is dangerous and should be avoided.

Look out for Street Cars when crossing the tracks.

When you drive behind a street car, always look out for the other car as well as for any other vehicle.

When passing a street car, never do so by going on the left of it.

Before crossing railroad tracks use caution and know for a certainty that the way is clear.

Never pass a street car when passengers are being taken on or off.

All Users of the Streets---REMEMBER

The aged and the child. Give all concession to them that you can. Proceed in every way to make their passage as safe as possible. Keep in mind that you were a child once and that you will probably reach an advanced age yourself.

Face Forward, Please

Passengers Alighting from Street Cars should never do so backward. Face the way the car is going for Safety.

Don't Leave Exposed Nails lying around in boards boxes. Last year 3,462 persons were injured in this manner in Massachusetts alone.

TO OUR COAL TRADE

Under present conditions our receipts of domestic coal are limited and prices are constantly changing.

We will be glad to enter orders, deliver the coal as promptly as we can secure it, and bill it to our customers on the basis of cost to us plus our usual gross margin, and this will have to be our policy at this time as everything indicates great uncertainty in the coal trade.

Our customers can be assured that we will do everything possible to keep the price as low as we are able to, consistent with quality, weight and service, and we shall be glad to have you entrust the business to us on this basis.

This also applies to any orders we already have from our trade.

TO GET MOORE'S SLAYER

whisked away.

The decision to remove Turner was made yesterday after it was decided that the murder was committed on a government reservation. The prisoner, therefore, will be tried before Judge Edmund Waddill of the United States Court for the eastern district of Virginia.

Judge Waddill also holds court in Richmond and Norfolk. The prosecution of the case will be in the hands of United States District Attorney Hiram Smith.

As heretofore stated a survey was made yesterday of the ground around the point where the murder and attempted assault occurred and it disclosed the fact that the murder was forty-five feet within the government line and the attempted assault and the robbery of Miss Clark were committed only twelve feet inside the government line. The federal government controls 1,000 feet on each side of the highway bridge.

Miss Clark accompanied by a number of friends last night made an automobile trip to Alexandria and viewed the body of Morgan Moore at his late residence 509 1-2 South Fairfax street. Owing to her weakened condition she told relatives of Moore that she will be unable to attend the funeral which will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon from his late residence and which will be conducted by Rev. Dr. P. P. Phillips, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

This was the first time Miss Clark had left her room in the Rutland apartment in Washington since the murder and attempted assault.

The formality of turning the prisoner over to the government authorities will be done today or tomorrow and this simply will mean a paper transfer inasmuch as it is hardly likely that the government authorities will move Turner until he is tried. Hiram Smith, United States attorney for the Eastern district of Virginia, stated that he intended at once to proceed to prosecute the case and prepare the necessary papers in order that this case may be presented to the grand jury which will meet in Alexandria June 21. An indictment may be returned against Turner by a grand jury which will meet either in Richmond or Norfolk and as already stated the negro may be tried in Richmond.

When Turner was faced yesterday morning by Alfred Stainer, 1401 Madison street northwest, Washington and charged with having been the same man who held up Stainer on the evening of March 21, he insistently denied having done the "job."

Stainer identified Turner as his assailant, "He's the man," he said.

"I didn't do it; I'm not the man," was the prisoner's statement.

According to Stainer, he and a young woman were seated in an automobile not far from the spot where Moore and Miss Clark were attacked early Sunday morning, when a highwayman appeared. Demand was made for money, and Stainer offered $15.00 and a watch.

Stainer was then knocked down and his assailant fired two shot at him, ordering him to get up and run.

No More Corn Suffering

"Gets-It" Never Leaves a Corn On Any Foot For Very Long.

The hurting "pep" goes right out of that corn the moment a few drops of "Gets-It" lands thereon. It is through, and "for keeps."

Corns and "Gets-It" Can't Live Together

You'll have no more pain but will notice the corn getting loose and wobbly. In a day or so, you lift it right off without any feeling. That's the end of the corn and of your troubles. Millions have proved "Gets-It" to be the one and only unfailing, common sense corn remover. Why not you?

"Gets-It" costs but a trifle at any drug store and carries a money-back guarantee. M'f'd. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

DODSON WARNS CALOMEL USERS

It's Mercury! Attacks the Bones, Salivates and Makes You Sick

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

DETERMINED WOMEN

With Brickbats and Hatchets They Threatened to Attack the Homes of Elusive Keepers

Aurora, Ill., May 24.—Mrs. J. W. Thomason, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union local, warned the authorities yesterday that unless they enforced the prohibition women of her organization would disguise as men and attack blind tigers with brickbats and hatchets.

"Liquor is being openly sold downtown, and the authorities know it," Mrs. Thomason said. "If no way is found to put them out women will do it—with brickbats and hatchets, if necessary. The assistant State's attorney said he would be glad to prosecute if he would get the evidence. We will dress up as men and get the evidence."

Mrs. Thomason said she did not want to be regarded as the village scold, but explained women of the town were calling upon her as head of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to do something.

Can be attached to any of the Duplex Stoves and the cook will not have to stoop in putting food in stove or when taking it out.

Adjustable Catch

Stove cover may be securely or only slightly fastened, allowing more or less steam to escape to conform to the nature of the food being cooked.

Outer Stove Casing

Made of steel, eliminating warping or cracking. Casing strongly reinforced on inside so it cannot buckle.

Steam Vent in Cover

Releases the steam pressure, letting the excess of steam escape and as a result the Duplex Fireless Stove will bake and roast brown.
